About The SubCommittee

The SubCommittee is a group of people sharing a common interest in submarines. This interest is primarily in the areas of static and radio-controlled models, history, submarine design, and memorabilia collecting.

Direct contact between members is encouraged...by phone, letter, e-mail, and through the quarterly magazine The SubCommittee Report. The SubCommittee is at its core an information network of friends helping friends. Additionally, local model submarine regattas are held by a number of the local chapters, culminating in the annual International SubRegatta.

The SubCommittee is a non-profit organization and is not affiliated with any vendor or manufacturer.

This form is for new members and former members. If you are a current member, do not use this form to renew. You will receive a renewal notice in the mail by December 1st of the current membership year.
